No.2 / April 2016

From 27.02.2016, a new stage of weekly seminars begun. These seminars take place every Saturday, in No 1 Colina Street, A Building, Classroom AIII1. A detailed calendar of the weekly seminars program can be found on the official website (http://www.unitbv.ro/seaaen/JeanMonnetCentreofExcellence.aspx)

In order to achieve its objectives, the team of the Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence "Challenges and Prospects of EU Integration in South Eastern Europe" organized in 31.03.2016 a workshop called „EAST-WEST MIGRATION IN THE EUROPEAN UNION".

The workshop was opened to the participation of international lecturers – teachers, PhD students and researchers. The keynote speaker of the workshop was Prof. Dr. Eleftherios Thalassinos, Jean Monnet Chair (University of Piraeus, Greece). At the workshop a number of non-guvernamental organizations from Brasov were invited. The workshop was attended by a significant number of students.

Among the workshop studies the following can be noticed: „Migration Flows in European Union: A Wave of Skilled and Unskilled Labour", „"A Gravity Model of East-West European Migration", „The Participation of Romanian Students at Internships and Mobilities from Other Countries: A First Step Towards Migration?", „Risk Management of the East-West Migration Phenomenon", „Considerations avout the Social and Economic Impact of Immigration and Repatriation. An Analysis for South-Eastern Europe", „The Critical Situation of R&D in Romania – the Main Cause of the Romanian Resaerchers' Migration", „The Impact of Emigration on the Demographic Ageing Process in Romania" „The Impact of of East-West Migration Upon Economic Development in Europe", "Lege Ferenda Proposals for Completing the Romanian Legal Framework Regulating Migration".

The studies presented in the workshop will be published in a special volume at Cambridge Scholars Publishing House.
